

YOUR SUCCESS

A COMPANY JOURNEY: For any company it is really important to ensure your staff are established within the company and start with the right tools and information. This creates the best setting for them to work effectively, and for you as a business to get the best results.
So where do we start and how can we help

OPERATIONS

Procedures, processes, forms, and day to day task setting. Having the correct processes in place can alleviate any inefficiency and save money

We can help evaluate your in-house operational processes to ensure they are stream-lined and do what they are supposed to do

RECRUITMENT & SELECTION

Working with a team of leading recruitment companies we can help at the very start of the journey with engaging and recruiting the best staff for your business

NEW STARTERS

Your employees journey with your company starts before they have even set foot in the office. ECD Consulting can implement the right tools to ensure a valued and comprehensive introduction

HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK

Having the correct Health and Safety procedures in place for your business and employees is paramount. With over 15 years experience ECD consulting can assist in identifying what you need

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

New employees are always keen to have their company policy questions answered. The key to this is having a comprehensive Employee Handbook which ECD Consulting can create

EMPLOYEE ISSUES

Unfortunately there are times when problems arise with members of staff for any number of reasons. We can help in those tricky situations and make the process as stress free as possible

EMPLOYEE JOURNEY

It is always hard to find the right time to check in with your staff to make sure they are engaged, need any support or have anything they want to ask you

EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT

Your team is the catalyst to making your business thrive. We can identify if there are any gaps in what you provide your staff in terms of development, training and overall well-being

HOW WE CAN WORK WITH YOU?

YOUR NEEDS: We can offer a FREE consultation with you to understand what the potential requirements are for your business

YOUR TEAM: We will work as an extension of your team and create a clear understanding and connection with you and your business

PERSONAL SERVICE: Using a down to earth and open approach, enables our services to feel stress free. Recognising and understanding diverse situations and supporting you when and where you need it

EXPERTISE: Working with a team of like minded experts we can offer the best possible knowledge and guidance
